HYDE PARK, N. Y., Nov. 7.
—Back among the home folks in the Hudson River Valley where he launched his political career
22 years ago, Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt today came to the end of his long and strenuous campaign for the presidency, supremely confident of a Democratic landslide at tomorrow's election.

The Governor was to set out this afternoon on a "sentimental" motor trip through several towns along the Hudson and tonight in Poughkeepsie he will make his final appeal to the nation in a half hour radio talk. He may take one last fling at President Hoover and the Republican leadership but his final speech will be mainly an appeal to "get out and vote."

Refuses To Rest
"I couldn't close this campaign without calling on my old friends and neighbors," the Governor said when his advisors begged him to spend the day resting quietly at his home.

Twenty-two years ago, Roosevelt,
then a youth just out of Harvard university, came to Poughkeepsie in the public square at Beacon as a candidate for the state senate. This

PA NEW OBSERVES

Among the detours listed this week on the Detour Bulletin of the State Highway Department, is that between New Castle and Wampum, due to the construction of the bridge at Willow Grove. Traffic is being detour via Ellwood City, a distance of 16 miles.

Tomorrow is election day. Every registered voter should go to the polls and cast his ballot. Its the most important national election of a generation.

Election boards are again asked to call The News as early as possible to get the Special telegraph service with returns from the voting in their precinct. Aid of every board will be appreciated by The News. Call 4000.

Plans are completed for the election night service for the public at The News. Special telegraph service will bring the returns of state and nation to The News as fast as possible. Local returns will be compiled by The News. All will be flushed to the public from The News building in North Mercer street as rapidly as possible.

With all of the new roads being built around the county it appears to Pa New that the little strip between the end of the concrete paving and the town of Volant should be improved. Somebody's blunder left the concrete highway ending about half a mile from the boro.

That pricking thorn in the path of the Perry highway engineers, below Meadville—the dismal Sheakley-ville swamp—will gradually be re-

THAT "NEW DEAL" - FOR US!

Tomorrow the voters of New Castle, Ellwood City, Lawrence County, all of Western Pennsylvania, as well as the nation at large will march to the polls and cast ballots for the selection of the next president of the United States, and other national and state officers.

A campaign is just closing that has been the most intensive in many years.

Many of the voters are bewildered.
They have been influenced somewhat by a procession of glittering promises that seem to flood the future with a most roseate hue. They have been led to believe that a "change in administration" will prove the panacea for all of the troubles of today, that a "new deal" is all that is necessary and everything will be alright.

Even here in our own New Castle and Lawrence County, this persistent dangling of a "new deal" has been somewhat effective in some sources.

But the promise of a "New Deal" does not stand
our local analysis.

Lawrence County is one of the industrial sections of the nation above many others that owes its past prosperity, and largely its hope of future prosperity to the established principle of the Republican party, the "protective tariff".

In fact, our greatest industry, tin plate, is a direct result of the protective tariff program of the Republican party years ago.

Our cement plants, our potteries, most all of our industries in this district, are in a large sense, directly dependent for their prosperity, if not their very existence, on the "protective tariff".

"Competitive tariff," which is the avowed program of the Democratic party, is a menace to this industrial district. It is a menace to the jobs of workers in the industries and businesses of Western Pennsylvania.

Regardless of who heads the ticket, voters of this district have nothing to gain, and much to lose, if the "competitive tariff" program becomes effective, and it has been broadcast widely time and time again by the Democratic party leaders that this will be the aim and endeavor, once the party is in power.

From the standpoint of individual interest of the citizens of New Castle and Lawrence county, there should be a tremendous majority rolled up in the election tomorrow for the Republican "protective tariff" program, as it is the most vital principle on the industrial program of the two parties affecting this immediate community.

Unless the principle of the "protective tariff" is sustained, the much heralded change and "new deal," would be one of the most serious and detrimental that we have ever encountered in this district.

New Castle, Lawrence County, and Western Pennsylvania voters should think seriously before they, by their votes at the polls tomorrow, endorse any program that stands for a "competitive tariff".

They will be voting directly against their own interests, and for a principle that would hold dire consequences in the future for us.

The Republican "protective tariff" is vital to our industrial welfare here in Western Pennsylvania.

That "competitive tariff" "new deal" holds nothing of benefit for us. It is a menace.

President Hoover the firm exponent of the "protective tariff" should receive overwhelming support in this district.

Never has the issue been so vitally clear to us.

Vote to protect our own livelihood!

Norman Thomas In Pittsburgh

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Nov. 7.—While his two major party opponents were preparing to make their eleventh-hour appeals for votes, a presidential candidate sipped orange juice and took polite bites of buttered toast between gulps of coffee in a railroad station here today, practically unnoticed.

He was Norman Thomas, Socialist party nominee, who is enroute to Milwaukee to close his nation-wide campaign. He hasn't decided whether he'll get returns from that city or from Chicago Tuesday night.
Thomas reiterated his oft-made election prediction:
"The Socialist party will poll a greater vote than ever before."

Newly Improved Road Is Opened

While the work is not entirely completed, the newly improved New Castle to New Wilmington road, extending from the end of Highland avenue to the college town, is open for travel. There is still a part of the road that is not yet completely surfaced, but the highway is in shape for use.
Many motorists made the trip over the road yesterday.
Some changes in the route of the road have been made, and at several places where fills were made, fences will have to be erected to guard motorists against serious danger. But, the road promises to be one of the finest in the entire county for travel, when it is entirely completed.

Lawrence County Will Cast Heavy Vote On Tuesday

State And National Officers To Be Elected In Addition To President

INTENSE ELECTION CLIMAXES TUESDAY

Chief Interest Of Local voters Centers On Selection Of President

Along with some other 35,000-000 voters of the United States, the voters of New Castle and Lawrence County go to the polls on Tuesday to cast their ballots in an election that is more than just a contest for public office.
An election that will probably stand out as the most vital one in the history of this nation
since the Civil War.

Here in Lawrence County the possibilities point to a vote of between 22,000 and 24,000 over all, although this may be increased if the weather is good. In New Castle there are approximately 12,000 voters registered when they are assessed which makes it rather difficult to forecast.

Interest In President Quite naturally the interest in this election is confined for the most part to the presidency. Little argument has been heard for the other offices, with the exception of minor differences, most of the voters confining themselves to a discussion of the relative merits of the two major presidential candidates.

The voter will be given the smallest ballot used in years when he steps into the booth tomorrow. This is due to the fact that the names of the presidential electors are not printed on the ballot this year, thus saving four or five lists of names with 36 in each list.

For president and vice president
there are seven sets of candidates on the ballot with one set already withdrawn. The candidates are Republican, Herbert Hoover and Charles Curtis; Democratic, Franklin D. Roosevelt and John N. Garner; Socialist, Norman Thomas and James H. Maurer; Prohibition, William D. Upshaw and Frank S. Wil-gan; Industrialist, Verne L. Reynolds and John W. Aiken. Communist, William Z. Foster, and James W. Ford. The Jobless candidates, James R. Cox and Victor C. Tisdal withdrew too late to get their names off the ballot.

Other Offices
For United States Senate there are five candidates. James J. Davis is the candidate of the Republican and

NO TRACE FOUND OF FREIGHTER

(International News Service)
COLON, Panama, Nov. 7.—A tropical hurricane, sweeping across the Caribbean sea, today wrought havoc along the Central and South American coastlines and wrecked the British freighter Phenix bound for Hong Kong with several passengers and a heavy cargo.
Part of her superstructure torn loose by the howling gale, the Phenix lost contact with land and rescue vessels after sending out distress signals and fears were felt that she had foundered. Meanwhile, fragmentary reports from towns and seaports in the path of the storm indicated heavy damage.

The Phenix apparently caught the full fury of the hurricane. The master reported that his ship's funnel had been blown away and that four of her holds were filling with water.
The distress signals were picked up by the British steamer Argonaut, which rushed to the position indicated. Reaching the spot within a few hours the Argonaut wirelessed
she could find no trace of the stricken vessel.

Election Night Service

Tuesday night promises to be one of the most notable election nights in many years in New Castle.
The intensity of the presidential election now drawing to a close, has heightened interest in the outcome until it is at a pitch seldom heretofore reached.
The News is planning to give local, state and national returns as speedily as possible, Tuesday night. Special telegraph service will bring the state and national returns to The News office continuously, while local returns will be secured and compiled by The News force. All will be flashed on the screen at The News as fast night. Call 4000.

The News also regrets to announce that it will be impossible to accommodate in the editorial rooms on election night, any visitors except those who have returns to report.

SCORES ROOSEVELT FOR TARIFF EVASION

Declares Democratic Prom-

not Be Fulfilled

By GEORGE E. DURNOW
SALT LAKE CITY, Utah,
Nov. 7.—By "misrepresentation"
and "irresponsible" tactics, the Democrats have sought to build up a "personal hate" against the administration that is designed to elect Franklin D. Roosevelt tomorrow.

This was the charge made today by President Hoover
in his final campaign speech, delivered at Salt Lake City before a packed crowd in the Mormon Tabernacle.
"That," said the President, "is making politics out of human misery."

To Ask All To Vote
Tonight, over the radio, Mr. Hoover will ask all citizens to exercise their franchise. Insofar as review of the issues at stake in the campaign were concerned, however, he spoke his last word here. The President denounced the Democratic tactics in no uncertain terms. He declared that all of the charges lodged against him were baseless and countered with the suggestion that most of the promises made by Governor Roosevelt could not be eventuated—or else were in accord with proposals already made from the White House.

Application of the Democratic program, the President said, would destroy those principles upon which the nation was based and force America to join the "decaying nations" of the world.
Mr. Hoover analyzed the strategy of his opponents for his audience.
First, he said, they are relying on the "Solid South." Second they would add their political brigades in the big cities. Then, by misrep-

Says Women's Vote Will Be Large Hoover Factor

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—The women's vote will prove an important factor in reflecting President Hoover tomorrow, Everett Sanders chairman of the Republican National committee, declared today.

In a statement issued at the party's National headquarters here, Sanders claimed that the president will capture a minimum of 338 electoral votes. He based his contention on the trend of a national news-paper poll during the last two weeks in October, which, according to the national chairman gives the president a "bedrock margin of victory of 281 votes."

Hoover Landslides
"Few women have voted until these two weeks," Sanders said.
"Taking the tabulated women's vote,
and giving effect to a normal vot-er's vote of 42 per cent of the total vote, President Hoover would have a safe margin of 281 electoral

BLAME STUNTING FOR PLUNGE OF PLANE

Five Killed As Planes Crash

BROTHER-SISTER DIE IN ILLINOIS

(International News Service)
RANDOLPH, Mass., Nov. 7.—Stunting was blamed by investigators today for the airplane crash in which three prominent society members lost their lives. The victims were Frederick Lothrop Ames, 29, Boston and Newport, R. I., yachtman; Miss Frances Burnett, Southboro heiress, 22, and Frank Penrose Sproul, Pittsboro, Pa., lawyer, a Harvard graduate. Hundreds of motorists saw the plane, which formerly was owned by Russell Boardman, transatlantic aviator, in spectacular feats in the air near here. Suddenly it went into a barrel roll and then a tailspin. It crashed into a stone wall on a farm, killing the occupants instantly.

Brother-Sister Killed
CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—A frightened girl's act in stepping on a foot control, authorities believed today, may have caused the 1,000 foot plunge of a borrowed airplane which brought death to Carl A. Bayer, 16 and his 17 year old sister, Anna. The plane fell on a field on the outskirts of the city. The youth, owner of a private pilot's license, was instantly killed. His sister died while medical aid was being rushed to the scene.

afternoon on the same spot, he will speak as a candidate for the highest office within the gift of the American people.

Setting out from Krum Elbow, the ancestral Roosevelt home, the Governor will motor to Beacon, then ferry the Hudson and go to Newburgh for a brief speech in the main street. Continuing on up the west bank of the river he will greet old friends in Kingston. Again crossing the Hudson by ferry, he will return home after a stop at Rhinebeck.

At Poughkeepsie
For 20 years on election eve Governor Roosevelt has been the chief speaker at a Democratic rally in Columbus Hall, Poughkeepsie and tonight he will speak not only for himself but for the state and local Democratic ticket.

After voting in the Hyde Park town hall tomorrow the Governor and Mrs. Roosevelt will motor to New York. Following another old custom the Governor will stop at the fire house at North Tarrytown to say "Howdy" to the firemen of that village.

He will receive election returns at Democratic national headquarters in New York tomorrow night and Wednesday he plans to return to Albany to begin the preparation of the state budget.

Keeps Same Hat
When the Governor alighted from his car upon his return to his home he handed his battered, old, felt hat to his Negro valet saying:

"Put this in a safe place, Mac, and don't let anything happen to it until after Tuesday."

Despite the pleas of Mrs. Roosevelt and other members of his family, Governor Roosevelt has refused to cast aside the hat which he has been wearing throughout the campaign. He smilingly admitted that he was superstitious about changing hats in the middle of a campaign.

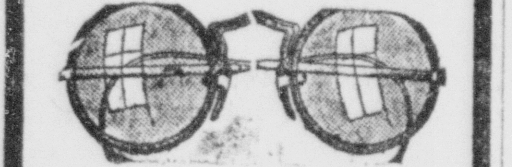

"It's all right to change horses but not hats," the Governor observed.

The red tape of some of our laws contributes to the misery of a lot of our people in the times of depression.

Example: I go out to my brother's, hunting. Shoot the limit of rabbits. He does the same, but he does not care to cook them, wants to send them home with me to distribute to the poor; cannot do so, as I might be arrested and fined for carrying the over number of rabbits. It is better to let them lay and spoil than let the hungry have them, in order to live up to some of our petty laws.

Falls Under Colt In Trying To Escape Being Kicked Saturday Afternoon

George F. Mitchell of Graceland road, first lieutenant of Troop F, 103rd Cavalry, was seriously injured Saturday afternoon, when he was trampled by one of the younger mounts during inspection.

Lieutenant Mitchell was examining one of the new horses, which is a little skittish, and when he touched one of its hind legs, it kicked at him.

In trying to escape, he slipped and rolled under one of the colts across the aisle of the stable, which became excited and trampled him several times.

He was removed to the New Castle hospital, where it was stated today that there was an improvement

THINK!

THE next four years may prove to be the most critical in the history of the United States.

Can we afford to experiment with unworkable proposals cooked up by a group that has failed to provide proof of its ability to carry forward the constructive program launched by President Hoover to bring the country safely through the trying days ahead?

It is a situation which calls for sound thinking and prayerful endeavor to act wisely. The nation must rise above the level of the demagogue who, with selfish intent, seeks to capitalize the suffering of millions by hypocritical appeal to the mob-mind.

Business men know that they cannot safely or economically experiment in change of management of great business organizations on a mere whim. They know equally as well that a change in the administration at Washington NOW may spell disaster for the entire country.

If you will THINK, you will realize this truth.

The great perils which have beset the United States, as a result of the world-wide depression, have been met by President Hoover and, under his leadership, the nation is on the way to business recovery.

Your vote will have much to do with determining whether the country shall steadily advance or whether it is to be thrown into uncertainty and despair.

THINK! Can the United States afford to gamble away its present prospects for better times by yielding to the voice of the demagogue?

You must decide your answer to that question when you go into the voting booth tomorrow.

AT THE END OF THE RAINBOW!

(Philadelphia Inquirer)

This campaign is over. The outcome of Tuesday's balloting is for the American citizen to decide. And what is the American citizen going to do about it?

Has he listened to the arguments by both sides? Has he been convinced by the facts, the unanswerable facts presented by President Hoover, or has he been swayed by the theories of Governor Roosevelt?

Does he realize that President Hoover took hold of a situation unparalleled in the history of the United States of the world—and gripped it as only superb leadership could grip it, or has he succumbed to the blandishments of the Democratic candidate who closes his eyes and ears to the achievements that are accomplishing genuine results?

Does he prefer the sound reasoning of Herbert Hoover, or is he a victim of ballyhoo? For it is upon ballyhoo that most of the Democratic campaign has been based.

The country is asked by Mr. Roosevelt to discharge a tried and competent commander for an untried successor who is surrounded by and owes his nomination to the radical politicians of the Democratic Party; to replace a leader of proved ability with an amateur performer who has nothing better to offer the people than a shuffle of the cards; to discard the policies which are positively restoring prosperity, policies which the commander has charted and carried along, and place the future in the hands of a theorist, whose plea is that the commander has "mismanaged," and that the Democratic aspirant could do better.

It is so easy to condemn—to destroy. Anybody can condemn. Condemnation, in fact, has been the pivot of the Roosevelt campaign.

But suppose Roosevelt had been in the White House since March 4, 1929, instead of Herbert Hoover. What would he have done? He has never told us. Would it have been possible for him to grasp the situation with the superb leadership shown by Hoover? Even today, what would Roosevelt give us in place of Hoover?

We don't know. You, the voters, don't know. Try to find out. But you can't find out from Roosevelt himself, for he doesn't know.

How can he, since the radicals among the Democrats and the so-called "Progressives" would be in a position to dominate him were he to be elected? What they did in the last session of the House of Representatives must be familiar to all intelligent citizens. The Hoover Administration saved the gold standard, maintained the financial integrity of the Government and stopped the issue of greenbacks and the piling up of an enormously increased debt. It met with all sorts of obstruction in its efforts to balance the budget, reduce expenditures and restore prosperity. Mr. Roosevelt has never disavowed the program of his own running mate, Speaker Garner, to flood the country with bogus money and squander billions.

And so the candidacy of Governor Roosevelt has assumed the form in the main of an appeal to discontent and an invitation to take a plunge from certain recovery into uncertainty—a plunge over a precipice.

Come right down to facts, and what have we? Surety and safety and sanity under Hoover. A gamble with an experimentalist under Roosevelt.

For after all, what is it that Roosevelt paints for the public? A pot of golden promises at the end of a rainbow.

But there never is a pot of gold at a rainbow's end. There is never anything there. The rainbow dissolves—and that is the finish.

Socialist Thomas might have a chance of election if everyone didn't speak so highly of him.

"I have not been muzzled," says Mr. Garner. That isn't the first mistake the Democratic managers have made.

All Of Us

By MARSHALL MASLIN

Two sorrowing letters have come to me. One is from a father, the other from a wife. And neither, I think, knows quite what to do.

A young girl died. She was gay and strong, but she died in agony of blood poisoning and her father tells me of those terrible days while he and his wife waited for their child to die.

He tells of standing at her bedside watching while the breathing grew slower and slower until life had ebbed away.

He writes of "the mother kneeling and holding the dying child's hand, the sobbing nurse, the father saying a prayer while the rest of the family looks on, wondering if it were all true or just a dream from which we would all wake up later."

"That is Death," he writes, "and that is MISERY," and he envies those whose loved ones go merely to prison and not out of this life.

The wife tells me of her husband who is dead. I did not know him, but I happen to know all too well, the way he died. He was a fireman and he died bravely, doing his job. It was nearly a year ago, but she says:

"When my husband died, something in me died, too. The memory of his suffering never leaves me. It gets worse as the months go by. I seem to have gone into a shell. I have no desire to talk to anyone, just thinking until I am nearly mad." She cannot cry. She has tried all religion but is not helped. And she thinks perhaps she is "just plain yellow" because she cannot endure having her heart torn out by the roots and she wonders if there is anything at all she can do to keep her from being "so terribly bitter."

I do not know. I am merely think out loud about it and hope that what I think may help this man and this woman. There is bitterness in each of them because Death has taken one they loved. The bitterness is natural, even though Death is a part of life and its nearness sometimes makes life the more precious. But sometimes we are helped in our grief, if we ask ourselves. "Am I grieving for the dead, or am I grieving for my own self, left here alone?" And would the dead have me grieve so hopelessly or would they have me go forward and live for those who love me?" The shoulders straighten a little and courage comes back when we answer those questions honestly.

But I think we should not TRY too hard to forget. This grieving woman says she has TRIED every religion, seeking comfort. It is, perhaps, a mistake to attempt to force life to give us peace and happiness. We cannot drive life, we must let it happen to us. We must not say, "I WILL FORGET DEATH!" We must steadily, instead, REMEMBER LIFE.

Then, finally, the living years of our lost ones shine like jewels in our memories and we are not so bitter. And we live for them instead of for our grieving selves.

PESSIMISTIC TALK

It's realized that industrial and financial conditions are the chief topics of conversation, but some judgment should be used as to where to talk.

A luncheon or a card party or a dinner is certainly not a suitable place to talk business.

It does not add to a guest's happiness to hear your pessimistic ideas about the cause of declining values.

Men and women make an offenders in this sort of talk, nowadays. Practically all persons have their own financial problems.

Usually they accept social invitations, patronize theatres and other amusements to get away from their worries.

In their effort to forget for a time they are compelled to listen to complaints of others and the social event is a failure instead of a benefit.

There is too much pessimistic talk anyway, and not enough cheering.

If present conditions are to be discussed at social gatherings the brighter side should be stressed.

Surely, facts are facts, but unfavorable facts should be forgotten when folk are trying to enjoy themselves.

Of some almost forgotten age,
No doubt to light a moment dark,
Let fall that very apt remark.

Now when a golfer coming in

And when a golfer homeward bound

We have a band exceeding theirs!"

Navy Day Revives Activity In Direction Of Arms Pact

American Threat Of Building Up To Treaty Strength Overshadowed For Present By Possibility Of Agreements For Reduction

National observance of Navy Day, in the course of which President Hoover voiced the American purpose to build the navy up to treaty strength, has divided attention with the developments in Europe, including the possibility of England agreeing to the American proposals and a reduction plan offered by the premier of France. Public opinion is turned in the direction of prospects for international agreements after long delay.

In connection with the discussion of Navy Day the PASADENA STAR-NEWS asserts that "the United States will meet any well-digested agreement to reduce armaments, provided all the great powers enter into such agreement in good faith; but this nation will not strip itself of necessary armaments for successful defense until all the other great powers join in reducing their armaments correspondingly." The MILWAUKEE SENTINEL holds that the people of the country may "profitably need the lessons of the day," since "many forces are at work tending to lower the strength of our maritime defense below that of other nations." The ROCK ISLAND ARGUS advises that "this nation is one of the great world powers and its navy should be commensurate with that fact," while the CHICAGO DAILY NEWS, believing that "the choice is between the Hoover program and another wasteful and deplorable armament race," contends that "continued failure of the Geneva conference to evolve a satisfactory agreement would compel the United States to face the grim realities of the world situation."

The LEXINGTON LEADER feels that "the people of this country, as a mere matter of assurance, must provide the navy with whatever it needs to keep itself in a position to defend the nation from all hostile attacks."

"The president of the United States," declares the WASHINGTON EVENING STAR, "now leaves no shred of doubt that, by reason of the disturbed conditions prevailing throughout the world, Uncle Sam will have no alternative, if European and Asiatic statesmen continue to do mere lip service to the cause of disarmament and refuse to come to grips with it, but to build an American fleet equal to the strongest afloat."

The CHARLESTON (W. VA.) DAILY MAIL feels that "the United States has demonstrated its sincerity beyond question, but it cannot afford to run the risk of inadequate defense while other powers enlarge their navies and armies."

Discussing the developments abroad, the TOPEKA DAILY CAPITAL suggests that "English opinion and European opinion appear to be won to the Hoover disarmament plan of a flat one-third reduction all around," while the YOUNGSTOWN VINDICATOR avers that "the world needs peace and a chance to recuperate, and at last, it seems, progress is being made in that direction."

The BOSTON TRANSCRIPT states that, "if it is really true that European statesmen are now beginning to see more clearly than ever the need of arms reduction on economic grounds, some effective general pact may be obtained."

The LINCOLN STATE JOURNAL voices satisfaction in the belief that the nations "are much

Rotary Club For Hoover

Straw Vote Shows 46 For Hoover And 3 For Roosevelt

President Herbert Hoover polled 46 of the possible 49 votes today when the city's Rotary club, acting "to satisfy its own curiosity" took a presidential and senatorial straw vote of its members at their luncheon in The Castleton. Dr. E. J. Pithian of Grove City, prohibition candidate for United States senator, won out over Senator James J. Davis, Republican candidate for re-election.

For the two offices the Rotarians voted this way:

President—Hoover 46, Roosevelt 3, Thomas 0.

U. S. senator—Dr. Pithian 23, Davis 11, Rupp 2.

With activity reports from different committee chairmen constituting the day's chief item of business, aside from the straw poll feature, the clubmen derived a new picture of Rotary activity locally and gained a word sketch of events now contemplated. President W. J. Caldwell presided.

Two visiting Rotarians, Dr. Frederick Taylor, Pulaski, and Harry Cooper, Cambridge Springs, Pa., attended the luncheon today.

Rotarians Ralph Bolsinger and Emanuel Shenkan acted as tellers for the straw vote. Today's meeting occurred in the hotel lounge because of the regular Community Chest dinner in the ball room.

Guardian To Join In Damage Action

Petition Presented To Court
This Morning By Rose Nocera For Guardian

Rose Nocera presented a petition in court this morning in which she set forth that she is the daughter of Concetta Nocera, who met her death last June in an automobile accident in a car belonging to Antoinetta Di Lorenzo, and operated by her husband, Nobile Di Lorenzo. Henry Nocera, husband of Concetta Nocera, is also dead.

Mayor Charles B. Mayne, through Chief of Police John F. Haven announced today that football games on Sunday within the limits of the city are not permitted and those participating may expect to be punished.

"Mayor Mayne has issued orders that no football games be permitted within the limits of the city on Sundays," said Chief of Police John F. Haven this morning, and he asks the co-operation of the football players and fans in not making it necessary in the future for the police department to interfere. It will be our unpleasant duty if this warning is not accepted in the way that it is intended and games are attempted in defiance of the order, to arrest the offenders in the future and punish those arrested in accordance with the law. We hope that this warning will be sufficient.

In addition to being a memorial ingathering, this year the need is much greater than it has been in previous years and the local Guild hopes to have enough garments to supply the heavy demand.

Any person interested in this work and not a member of the Guild is at liberty to contribute to the cause and to come to the Castleton Thursday to see the display.

The garments will be distributed to local charitable institutions.

which may make it instrumental for the realization of the Hoover proposal, by cutting regular forces to police requirements and restricting the size of citizen armies."

The BALTIMORE SUN offers the conclusion: "The French arms plan, involving as it does a system of military alliances and a measurable infringement on national sovereignty through the international control of armaments, is hardly likely to be accepted than the scheme for the organization of an international police force. It cannot be said that the plan is put forward entirely for bargaining purposes as some of the French proposals seemed to have been put forward in the past, for there is evidence to support the belief that France is sincerely trying to make concessions to Germany on the one hand and to the international sentiment for disarmament on the other. But it must be recognized that the proposed submission of armaments to international supervision and the proposed formal commitment to a consultative pact involve tremendous difficulties and hold out only a slender promise of agreement. To be sure, Mr. Stimson has said for this country that consultation is implied in the Kellogg pact, but the embodiment of this admission in a formal treaty is another matter."

Triple Inspected Cleaning

a suit is

WHEN:

First a properly cleaned suit is clean—all of the soil out, odorless and free from gummy, dust-catching residue that occurs when the cleaning solvent is not crystal pure. A suit is properly pressed when the coat collar hugs the neck and the garment drapes as it did when pockets do not bulge out, when trousers "hang" straight with one emphatic, long-lasting crease and never a sign of former creases...The difference in cleaning is just as great as the difference in clothes—and just as much worth watching. Fish cleaning challenges critical eyes. Use this advertisement as a guide—send a suit to Fish—and check every detail.

PRESIDENT SPEAKS TO GREAT CROWD AT SALT LAKE CITY

resentations and nebular promises which can never be fulfilled, they are appealing to the unemployed, the farmers, the miners, and other ranks in which dissatisfaction might be expected to be inspired easily.

"Their failure will be the rebuke of an honest-minded and thinking electorate," the President declared.

Denounces Roosevelt's Evasions
Turning to the topics which most interest this section of the country, Mr. Hoover denounced Governor Roosevelt for his evasions on the subject of beet sugar tariff and silver.

He reiterated the statement he made last night at Denver to the effect that duty-free sugar from the Philippines should be scaled downward and observed:

"The only occasion upon which the Democratic candidate has expressed himself upon any particular schedule of the tariff was in a communication through the Cuban press to express his sympathy for the Cuban ambition to remove the tariff on sugar.

"I might further call attention to the explanation given, when confronted with the query as to whether this meant he would not discuss any particular schedule. The same reply was made when he was asked about the tariff which today is the sole protection of your cattle and sheep industry.

"Now, I submit that if any man is competent to discuss the protective tariff, he must know whether the different schedules are too high or too low.

For Protective Tariff
"I do not need to reiterate that I stand flatly for the protective tariff. I stand for the protective tariff which means always the preservation of the American market for the American producer. Further, I stand for the speedy repair of the breaches in its walls which have been made by the depreciation of foreign currencies."

At this point, the President paid tribute to Senator Smoot for having led the fight to take "tariff out of log-rolling."

On the subject of depressed silver, President Hoover called the attention of the Western states to the fact that his was "the only administration in thirty years which has won for you the consideration of this question by the nations of the world."

Calling attention to this country's participation in the forthcoming world economic conference, the President said:

"I stipulated as a condition of American entry into that conference that there should be considered also the methods for the restoration of the use and price of silver as a full part in that conference. That was actually accepted. I have given assurance to the people of the international region that I shall appoint a representative on the American delegation who will carry their point of view to that conference."

"Increase in the value of silver would relieve us from strains of cheap production of goods which flow over our borders. It would rehabilitate the buying power of many foreign nations for our goods. We have long since determined that there can be but one standard of monetary value but yet we should restore silver to greater use for subsidiary coinage and other purposes in those countries which traditionally have used it and to do it without undermining the gold standard. It thus becomes a problem which cannot be solved without international action."

Kellogg Pact
One more major issue was discussed by the President. That concerned American application of the Kellogg Pact. After lauding its purpose, he said:

"I have made but one reservation and that is that we will join no movement that proposes to use military or economic force in its attempts to prevent war. For that is a contradiction of method."

"I see in wars the loss of the glorious young manhood of the world, who, but for war's slaughter, would lead the bright columns of human hope and human idealism and human progress to levels far above the past. I see wars in terms of women, widowed or unwed, with

Arthur McGill School Student Grows Own Trees

Junior Hewitt, a student of Arthur McGill school, has been given special commendation from the Lawrence County Garden club and the message—"Keep up the conservation spirit, Junior."

It came about this way. A number of weeks ago Arthur McGill school had a flower and vegetable show. One of the strangest exhibits was a little maple tree. But the judges didn't know what to do about it, since a tree could not be included in either the flower or vegetable classes.

Some weeks later it came to the ears of the judges, (members of the Lawrence County Garden club) that the tree was one of a number grown from "maple seeds" gathered and planted by Junior Hewitt, who has a small nursery of maple trees in his garden. Needless to say, the garden club judges were most pleased, and commend Junior's work highly.

Judge Chambers Forum Speaker

Meeting Is Held In Court House
On Sunday Afternoon

A generous crowd of over two hundred people assembled in the Court House on Sunday afternoon for the first session of the People's Forum. After the preliminary remarks had been made Judge James O. Chambers was introduced as the speaker of the day, with his subject "Law Enforcement."

Law Enforcement is a subject in which almost everyone is interested. Since the World War there has been a great increase in crime especially crimes of violence. Without Law Enforcement there is a breaking down of governmental function.

There is a general feeling that respect of the law is due to Prohibition, but crime is on the increase in countries where there is no Prohibition.

No one is above the law if the officials honestly and sincerely set about to enforce the law. The trouble is in the administration of the law. Judge Chambers then quoted many illustrations showing this.

Several people also expressed their views from the floor after the main speech.

LETTERS TO THE NEWS

Editor News,

Dear Sir:—
If a mechanic were to be approached by his employer and told: "Bill! business is improving, but not much good yet. I know you know your job, but I am going to put another fellow in here to take your place. He is a green horn at the job, but I am hoping that he may be able to do it as well as you".

What do you suppose any average business man would think of the wisdom of this move? Yet, that is just what the Democratic Party is asking the American people to do. If the Democratic Party succeeds on November 8th, how long will it take their new man to learn the job as well as the man who is now there? Among the sources of anxiety is the Tariff Proposition. Unfortunately the working man does not, generally speaking, analyze it as he should. He is the one who is going to be most affected. To reduce the Tariff means additional unemployment in America and a hard winter ahead.

It means the destruction of, at least, holding up over winter, of the improvement already made. If the Democratic Party does what they declare, it will cause the stoppage of many improvements which otherwise would be made.

To reduce tariffs seems to be suicidal, for example; one-half dozen knives and forks, silver plated, can be shipped from England into America, duty paid and sold at $4.81; whereas, if costs the American manufacturer $7.42 to manufacture the same articles, if we maintain our present standing of living Rubber boots can be shipped in here from Czechoslovakia, duty paid and sold at $1.16 per pair; whereas, if costs the American manufacturer $1.48 to produce the same article, if we maintain our present standard of living. A worse position is the shipment of 60 kilowatt lamps from Japan. They come into the United States, duty paid and ready for sale at $3.12 per hundred; whereas, it costs the American manufacturer $3.72 to produce them, if we maintain our present standing of living.

Therefore, if we maintain our present standing of living, the General Electric Company have shut down because of its inability to compete with Japan and still maintain the present standing of living for their workmen.

Belgium is now paying the present duty and shipping steel into America against our steel manufacturers.

We took an automobile trip last summer from Trieste to the Hague. I saw more automobiles at the Pitt-Notre Diner football game than in any five hundred miles of that trip, but the wages and standard of living there and here are different. Reducing European monies to its American value, we find; we pay common labor about forty cents per hour, they pay about ten cents; women in Italy who make fancy work get about five cents per hour;

skilled mechanics, a maximum of about twenty-five cents per hour in Europe generally.

The farmer does not pay export duty on his wheat and grain; therefore, the tariff can not be blamed for the present low prices of these commodities. If it is a case of over-production and lack of buying power from those who would eat this wheat. In addition to this, Europe is producing a tremendous lot of its own wheat. For example: Italy, by the introduction of more modern forms and appliances, has increased its wheat production to 120 million bushels; Germany's harvest last summer looked to me to be tremendously good; the United States and Canada together have 900 million bushels; Argentina will furnish 300 million bushels more. Thus, America (North and South) has 120 million bushels of wheat, which it needs to dispose of. If we increase our unemployment, we decrease our buying power of these food stuffs.

We protect ourselves by tariff. France, refuses to hire you unless you are French. If you can talk several languages, you may be a teacher or waiter in a hotel.

That things commercial are improving in America, there is no question. The Department of Commerce reports 100,000 more persons "back on the job". Car loadings are increasing. Exports and Imports have increased more than 20%. Each week since July 1, shows marked improvement some place. I see very plainly that "Bill's" job should not be given to one who has not his experience and for these reasons, among others, I intend to vote for Mr. Hoover.

Respectfully yours,
THOMAS LIGGETT.

Barter System Is Proving Big Help

Exchange Of Commodities And Services Is Found To Work
Successfully

Press dispatches indicate that in many communities throughout the country a system of barter and exchange is proving beneficial in helping to solve economic problems. Probably the first practical illustration of the principle in this section, is to be found at the Branchton lime plant, run by Sterritt Smith, which was described a few days ago.

Smith furnishes lime to the farmers in exchange for their produce, and in turn passes the produce on to his workers, with the result that the plant has been kept in operation.

In Utah and Southern Ohio eight thousand farmers and workmen have formed an organization known as the National Development Association. In the association are doctors, merchants, dentists, mechanics, plumbers, craftsmen, and tradesmen of all kinds.

They exchange their services and products among each other, using script issued by the association as a medium of exchange. The association boasts that it has made its members economically self supporting.

Oklahoma City has its "shirt sleeve exchange" where the unemployed are sent out to work for people who pay in goods. If the worker cannot use the goods he receives, he takes them to the exchange where they are traded for something he can use, either goods or services.

In Utah a farmer trades potatoes for a haircut. In Louisiana farm boys pay their tuition at a state university with farm produce. In Kansas City a workman trades his labor for food and clothing.

Reports show that all over the country much is being done to help employment in this way.

Invite New Singers For 'The Messiah'

Public Rehearsals Draw Hundred And More To 'Y';
Will Set Date

Singers of New Castle and the surrounding districts today were invited to join with others already in rehearsal for the Christmas-time presentation of "The Messiah," yuletide cantata. Public rehearsals began last week.

Director John E. Paton, instrumental supervisor in the city schools, said the public practices will continue each Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the auditorium at the Y. W. C. A.

New committeemen to make the selection of soloists and manage the business arrangements of the undertaking have been chosen by members who served on the arrangements committee last year. It was their decision to have each committee member fill his place following the cantata's presentation each Christmas with a new member to handle the next year's work.

Director Paton said the date and place for the program would be announced very shortly.

Over a hundred singers have already registered as members of the group.

"Hatchet Murder" Suspect Freed At Uniontown

Clyde Harden, Relative Of Slain Women Given Release By State

(International News Service)
UNIONTOWN, Pa., Nov. 7.—Only one suspect in the tragic "hatchet murders" of a grandmother, mother and daughter at Connellsville last month remained in custody here today following the release of Clyde Harden, a relative of the victims.

The lone man still in custody was Philip Renda, identified as a suitor of Mrs. Nellie Tressler, the mother of Mrs. Amanda Harden, mother of Clyde and Mrs. Tressler, and Sadie Tressler, daughter of Mrs. Tressler, were the other victims.

Harden was given to understand he still is considered a material witness in the case and was subject to be recalled for questioning at any time. He was arrested when he appeared in Connellsville and asked more information about the slayings a few hours after the mutilated bodies of the three women were found. Harden said he was working in a Cumberland, Md., restaurant when the murders occurred.

Hundreds Take Part Sunday In Annual Memorial

St. Joseph's Cemetery On Wilmington Road Is Scene Of Annual Services

Second annual occasion on which members and friends of St. Joseph's parish gathered at the cemetery of the parish on the New Wilmington highway to remember those who have passed on and are buried in that place, was an event of Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

There was a marked increase in the number of persons participating in the event, approximately a thousand persons participating in the ceremonies of the occasion.

The entire group formed in procession behind the cross bearer and proceeded about the entire cemetery property, those in the procession offering prayers as they made their way about the cemetery and the clergy, who were in the procession, blessing the graves.

The entire ceremony was most impressive and the sermon address of Rev. Fr. Paul E. Campbell, A. M. Litt. D., superintendent of parochial schools of the diocese of Pittsburgh, which followed the procession, was most helpful and instructive and had to do on the occasion being observed.

Blessing and Absolution for the Dead brought the ceremonies of the occasion to a close and was pronounced by Rev. Fr. V. Stan-cewski, pastor of Saints Philip and James.

Rev. Fr. Joseph A. Doerr, pastor of St. Joseph's parish, was in general charge of the occasion and other priests participating included those already named and Rev. Fr. A. P. Scholz, pastor of St. Margaret's parish, and Rev. Fr. Frank Stutler, chaplain of New Castle hospital.

Voter 90 Years Old Will Give Hoover His Vote

S. W. Means, 90, Uniontown, Pa., Who Voted For Lincoln, Likes Hoover

(International News Service)
UNIONTOWN, Pa., Nov. 7.—Herbert Hoover, in the opinion of ninety year old S. W. Means, is greatly similar to Abraham Lincoln.

Because of that belief, Means has announced he intends to cast his vote for the Republican president, just as he cast his first ballot for the re-election of Lincoln in 1864.

"The crisis through which Abraham Lincoln led us can be compared to the present situation, and this is no time to swap horses," means explained.

Means has voted in 18 presidential elections and has missed only 3 times. He hopes to add two more for a full score.

STOP COLDS QUICK

—in the Dry Stage!

A cold should be treated promptly the first 24 hours. This is why: A cold ordinarily passes through three stages. The Dry Stage, the first 24 hours; the Watery Secretion Stage, from 1 to 3 days; and the Mucous Secretion Stage. Once a cold gets beyond the first stage it is far more difficult to relieve.

Relief comes quickly if you take Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine immediately—because this cold remedy does the four things necessary. It opens the bowels—kills the cold germs and fever in the system—relieves the headache and grippy feeling—tones the entire system and fortifies against further attack.

No worry about what you're taking when you take Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine. It contains no narcotics and produces no bad after-effects. Does not upset the stomach or make the head ring. For years Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine has been the stand-by of thousands in the treatment of colds and grippe. You're playing safe when you take this famous cold tablet! Every drug store in America sells Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine. Handy, pocket-size box, cellophane-wrapped. Beware of substitutes.

Made Pies Enough For Every Person To Have Had Three

Every working day of the year, Mrs. Cecil Carnes of 206½ South Ray street, is busy making pies and then more pies and according to Mrs. Carnes, she thoroughly enjoys this work, which she started on two years ago on November 2, 1930.

In the six hundred working days of the two years ending on November 2 of this month, she found on investigation that she had averaged 283 pies for each one of the days with the exception of twenty-one work days on which she did not make any.

A little figuring and it is easy to determine that Mrs. Carnes has made 163,857 pies in the time designated, or approximately three for every man, woman and child in the city. Of course, every one of the residents did not get one of her pies, there being others who had many of them and made up the average.

POETRY CONTEST

New Castle Defeats New Kensington 32 To 7

"Red Hurricane" Rings Up Third Conference Win

Johnny Uram, Walter Kominiak and Shelloogs Are Stars In Game

Visitors Tally On Forward Pass, New Castle Shows Fighting Spirit

New Castle High's big "Red Hurricane" football team administered one of the season's most stunning upsets here Saturday afternoon at Taggart Stadium by trouncing a heretofore undefeated New Kensington High football team 32 to 7. It was New Castle's third Class AA Conference victory and together with Jeannette High they rule the W. P. I. A. L. as undefeated eleven.

Johnny Uram, New Castle's ace blond halfback provided the thrills of the game with a 38-yard dash for one touchdown and two more on short thrusts. Walter Kominiak tallied one of the touchdowns on a line plunge, and Ron Thomas snatched a pass for the final touchdown. New Kensington scored on a forward pass caught by Zaleski behind the New Castle goal line. The game was replete with fumbles, "breaks" and sensational football. It can easily be classed as the best of the year on the home field. A crowd estimated at close to 4,000 witnessed the game.

New Castle Superior
There was not much question as to the superior team after that first quarter. True that New Castle did not look very good on that forward pass that New Kensington scored as a touchdown. But, that touchdown by the visitors only served to arouse the Bridenbaugh coached machine to a fury, and they proceeded to display the kind of football that they are capable of. New Castle registered 16 first downs to four for the New Kensington team. That is about the margin of New Castle's victory. The Glockmen didn't flash much of an offensive attack other than those deadly forward passes. They tried 13 passes and made good four of them, one for the touchdown with Zaleski on the receiving end for an 18 yard pass from Shukis. The New Kensington man caught the ball back of the goal line after pulling the New Castle secondary defense in on what looked like an attempted end run. Nelson plunged the extra point. This happened in the first quarter after New Castle had taken the lead by accepting a "break" of the game that gave them the ball on the 2 yard mark.

Locals Get Break
The play in the first part of the game was close and hard fought. Neither team was able to gain consistently. It was a punting duel between DeCarbo and Shukis. The "break" referred to above happened as follows—DeCarbo punted to New Kensington's safety man, Ross near the goal line and he muffed the ball. Fred Shelloogs the big New Castle left tackle like a flash was upon the ball and New Castle took the ball on the 2 yard mark. Walter Kominiak opened up his battering ram energy and slashed over for the touchdown on the first play. Nickum kicked the extra-point.

With the score deadlocked at 7-7 at the end of the first quarter New Castle became fighting mad. New Castle was denied a touchdown when Kominiak fumbled on the 3 yard line after New Castle had worked the ball from their own 20 yard line on a series of line bucks by Uram and Kominiak that produced three first downs, and also when Thomas recovered DeCarbo's kick on the New Kensington 30 yard line. Shukis was the man who fell on the ball as Kominiak dropped it, and then the visiting quarterback kicked the ball from behind his own goal line to Uram on the 25 yard line.

Uram Scores
New Castle's offensive attack got under way again when Uram knifed his way through to the 11 yard line for a first down. Kominiak picked up a yard. Lane ran the ball to the 6 yard line. Kominiak was halted. It looked as if New Castle would be denied another touchdown. On the fourth stab at the line Uram slipped through tackle and over for the second touchdown. Nickum replaced Lane for New Castle and failed to kick the extra-point. New Castle 13—New Kensington 7.

The end of the first half found New Castle with the ball on the 23-yard line. Walatos and Shukis were the best bets in the New Kensington backfield, the former returning the kickoff 20-yards on each play and Shukis doing a lot of fine punting and passing. In the first half New Castle had 7 first downs to two for New Kensington. The visitors tried five passes and made good three of them, one for the touchdown. New Castle attempted but one pass and failed in that. It looked like anybody's game in that first half.

Fireworks Commence
After the intermission in which the New Castle High band paraded the field and played a few snappy tunes, the players returned to the field. New Castle's men had a determined look on their faces. New Kensington was fighting mad.

New Castle kicked to New Kensington at the start of the third period. Lane grabbed a New Kensington pass in mid-field. New Castle began the "big push" that ended at the 6 inch line where the New Kensington team put on one of those "last ditch" battles and took the ball on downs. Kominiak, Uram and Lane had used up a lot of energy running the ball down the field, and Kominiak couldn't get it over. Shukis punted again from behind his own goal line and Lane took the ball on the New Kensington 25-yard line. A pass from Nickum was taken by Walatos on the 18-yard line. New Kensington failed to gain and Shukis kicked to Uram on the 38-yard line.

Uram Races 38 Yards
On one of those famous cut-back plays Uram slid off tackle, raced through the New Kensington secondary defense and was off on a 38-yard gallop that gave New Castle their third touchdown. The run was one of the prettiest of the year for the Slippery Uram. Nickum's try for extra-point after replacing Lane was no good. New Castle 20—New Kensington 7. The third quarter ended with New Castle having kicked off to Walatos who returned the ball 25 yards to the New Castle 60 yard line.

The fourth and final quarter started with James replacing Tomaleio at end for New Castle. New Kensington opened up with a series of passes in an attempt to score, but New Castle was alert. Rambo intercepted a New Kensington pass on the New Kensington 35 yard line. Nickum to Uram on a reverse play gave New Castle a first down on the visitors 25 yard line. New Castle drew a 5 yard penalty. Nickum flipped a pass to Uram good for eight yards placing the ball on the New Kensington 15-yard line. Nickum made a first down on the 10.

Shelloogs Get Ovation
Nickum flipped one ball Thomas that gave New Castle the ball on the 4-yard line. Thomas just about got away for a touchdown. He was downed by R. Belli. Lane replaced Nickum for New Castle. Uram on an end run breezed over the goal line just inside the boundary line. DeCarbo failed to kick the extra point. Humphrey and Palkovitch trotted out and replaced the Shelloogs and the brothers got a big ovation. They played a fine game. Alex Shelloogs was injured below the eye and needed medical attention. They had smeared plenty of New Kensington plays.

DeCarbo booted the ball to Ross on the kickoff after touchdown and the slippery New Kensington backfield man returned the ball 20-yards before being brought down by DeCarbo and Duff. New Kensington opened up with another forward passing attack and the Linesman Gannon allowed one pass when he claimed a New Castle man was interfering with the receiver. This gave New Kensington the ball on the New Castle 28-yard line. Shukis tried two more passes in a row and they were broken up. New Kensington drew a 5-yard penalty.

Thomas Takes Pass
The time was getting short. New Castle took the ball on downs, on their own 30-yard line. Howley replaced Duff for New Castle at center. Lane knifed through for a first down after a run of about 14-yards. New Kensington drew a 25 yard penalty.

One of the prettiest plays of the game was that last touchdown. New Castle crossed up the visitors when they allowed Kominiak to pass. Kominiak stood on the New Kensington 40-yard line and passed. Thomas took the pass on about the 20-yard line and ran unmolested to the goal line. The pass came with such swiftness that the Glockmen were caught napping.

The game ended shortly afterwards with the teams battling in mid-field. Ridley replaced Uram just after the fourth touchdown and played a good game.

Thrilling Game
It was a thrilling game from start to finish, and worth the money. There was something doing all the time. New Kensington had the best team that New Castle has faced this year. R. Belli, A. Belli, Pauli and Zaleski looked good on the New Kensington line. The entire New Castle line stood out quite brilliant.

The upset Saturday was the worst that New Kensington has met with in quite a number of years, and they left with praise for the New Castle team and for Bridenbaugh.

The game was comparatively clean as far as penalties were concerned with New Castle being penalized 35 yards and New Kensington 30 yards. There was quite a bit of rough play that went unnoticed by the officials. New Castle High "Red Hurricane" will meet Youngstown South High at Taggart Field next Saturday afternoon.

WESTMINSTER DEFEATS THIEL 18-0 IN INTERESTING GAME SATURDAY

Arrowsmith, Ketterer, And Staples Score Touchdowns

Line Play Of Dishong, Leyshock, Rose Stood Out

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Nov. 7.—Coach John Lawther's Westminster College football team clicked like veterans for more than three-quarters here Saturday, and the Titans were able to defeat Thiel College by an 18-0 score.

Touchdowns scored in the first, third and fourth quarters by three different Thiel backs spelled defeat for the Lutherans and erased the defeat suffered at the hands of Thiel at Greenville last year.

Arrowsmith Scores
The first score came early in the first quarter. Hollander kicked off to McClure, Thiel halfback, who returned it from the 20 to the 32. Tomechko made seven. McClure made a scant yard. Snyder punted to Sweeney on the Titan 30. Sweeney and Staples, on three tries, made the first down on the Thiel 44. Sweeney and Staples on two tries made the first down on the Lutheran 30. Arrowsmith and Staples, on three attempts, made first down on the Thiel 20. On four attempts Arrowsmith, Sweeney and Staples made it first down on the Thiel eight-yard line. Staples went through center for four. Staples picked up three more, placing the ball on the one-yard line. Arrowsmith was stopped for no gain. Staples plunged to the one-foot mark, where the ball went to Thiel on downs.

This momentary stay of Titan power was soon forgotten, however, for Snyder punted from behind his own goal line to Sweeney at mid-field and Sweeney returned the ball to the 39 out of bounds. Arrowsmith was stopped at the line, and on the next play, behind perfect interference, Arrowsmith raced the 30 yards for the score. Hunneke's placement try was blocked.

Thiel Threatens
The second quarter showed the Titan offense and defense dormant for a time while Thiel chalked up four first downs to one by Westminster. Thiel carried the ball on a sustained drive from its own 29 to the Titan two-yard line, only to lose the ball on downs. Sweeney, standing behind his own goal line, punted over Snyder's head, the ball going to the Thiel 42. After Thiel had made two more first downs Coach Lawther sent in Merrill Straw and James Bloker to replace Franklin and Hollander at center and guard. Both Franklin and Hollander had been injured in the Waynesburg game.

Second Half
At the start of the second half the Titan offense started clicking again, and the Lawthermen made 12 first downs to two by Thiel in the third and fourth periods. With Staples, Arrowsmith, and Sweeney carrying the ball, Westminster ripped big holes through the Lutheran line. The ball, following an exchange of punts, was on the Titan 40 in Westminster's possession. Ketterer was sent in for Arrowsmith at left half for the Titans.

Ketterer made six on the first play. Sweeney added two more. Staples went through tackle for a first down. Westminster was penalized five yards for offside. Staple made up the five over left tackle. Ketterer made 16 on a double pass. Staples added another first down through the line. Ketterer, on the next play, raced past the line of scrimmage with the aid of good blocking, shook off three tacklers and outran the Thiel secondary to score from the 25-yard line. Sweeney tried an end run for the extra point, but was tackled on the one-foot mark.

Staples Scores
At the end of the third period Rehms kicked off to Thiel, the ball going only a few yards. Scarbrough, Titan half, ran down the field and fell on the ball before a Thiel player could get it, and it was Westminster's ball on the Lutheran 30.

From here Sweeney made seven. Staples made it first down on the Thiel 15. Ketterer made four. Sweeney added another. Ketterer made first down on the two-yard line. Ketterer carried the ball to the one-yard line. From here Staples plunged over for the score. Hunneke's placement for extra point was low.

Westminster registered 20 first downs to six by Thiel, did not fumble during the contest, completed one of three forward attempts and lost 75 yards on penalties. Thiel completed one of four pass attempts and had two intercepted. The Lutherans lost 50 yards on penalties.

So good was the teamwork of the Titans that it would be hard to single out individual stars. Staples was hitting the line for consistent gains all day. Sweeney, Arrowsmith and Ketterer were all outstanding at ball-carrying. Dishong at tackle, Captain Rehms, Rose, Leyshock, Straw and Scarbrough all played excellently on the line.

The victory over Thiel gives the Titans a record of four victories and four defeats for the season. As compared with 65 points scored, as compared with 63 scored by opponents. Two games are yet to be played: Muskingum at New Concord, O., on November 12, and Geneva at Beaver Falls on November 19.

The line-ups:
Westminster 18 Thiel 0
Leyshock L. E. Rehms
Dishong L. T. George

New Castle Team Is Resting Today

Meet South High Youngstown Here This Coming Saturday At Taggart Field

Coach Philip H. Bridenbaugh, gave the New Castle High School football players a much needed rest today. Practice sessions for the next game on the card with Youngstown South will be started Tuesday afternoon.

The red and black clad warriors were rather badly used up in that starting 32 to 7 victory over New Kensington High, with Alex Shelloogs suffering a badly cut eye, Uram a damaged nose and DeCarbo and Raskowski severe injuries. It's going to take a lot of mending to get this New Castle team in shape for South High.

Bridenbaugh gave the boys a good talk using the blackboard this afternoon to explain a series of new plays that will be used against Youngstown.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Michigan and Purdue are deadlocked for the lead in the Big Ten conference and Southern California heads the Coast Conference. Nebraska heads the Big Six conference and Texas Christian the Southwest conference. In the Rocky Mountain conference Utah leads and Tennessee ranks first in the Southern conference. Punman, Western Kentucky, Southwestern, Loyola and Centenary are tied for the lead in the Southern I. A. A.

Colgate has won seven games and scored 227 points and have not been scored against this season. Columbia has scored 193 points but has been scored against for a total of 25 points. Waynesburg has won seven games, also, scored 95 points to 24 for opponents. Brown chalked up 74 points with 15 for the opposition and Pitt has scored 169 points and had 25 points scored against them.

Waynesburg And Geneva To Meet

Tri-State Conference Title Will Be At Stake This Saturday

JACKETS UPSET JUNIATA 13-12

By VICTOR J. JACOBS
International News Service Sports Writer.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 7.—Almost but not quite. There you have a condensed description of the fortunes, or rather semi-misfortunes, of the Waynesburg college gridiron machine in last Saturday's tangle with Juniata college.

The Jackets are still in top running today with seven victories and no defeats as they trained for their next game with Geneva. The Covenanters and Waynesburg are running neck and neck for first honors in the tri-state conference and the winner of that meeting will be installed a top-heavy favorite to cop the title.

Jackets Win.
From the opening to the closing whistle Juniata ran the invading and favored Jackets ragged, and but for a successful placement by Quarterback Donnelly of Waynesburg for the extra point might have pushed Coach Frank Wolf's proteges from their lofty perch. The battle finished with Waynesburg on the long end of a 13-12 count.

Each week-end of football brings forth upsets such as is demonstrated in Duquesne university's 19 to 0 triumph over Washington & Jefferson college.

Many other interesting results were recorded during last week's grid games. The rejuvenated West Virginia university blanked Georgetown university, 19-0. Geneva college swamped Grove City, a traditional rival, 20-0. Allegheny college made its first score of the season but lost nevertheless to Oberlin, 7-6. Westminster closed its home season with an 18-0 win over Thiel; West Virginia Wesleyan stymied with Glenville, 21-21; Slippery Rock downed Indiana Teachers, 7-0, and California Teachers won 6-0 from Clarion Teachers.

FRANKLIN A. C. WINS

Franklin A. C. football team handed the Dad's eleven a 14 to 13 setback in a game at Paul street field. Touchdowns were made by Aiken on a 95 yard run and by Llewellyn on a 50 yard dash for the Franklin team. The touchdowns for the losers were made by Davis who fell on a fumble back of the goal line, and Davis also scored the second touchdown for the losers. It was a good game.

Oaklands Trim DeHarts 6 To 0

Oakland Mud Divers football team handed the DeHarts last year's City League grid champs a 6 to 0 setback Saturday in the opening game of the City League at the Fall Track. The lone touchdown for the Oaklands was made by Carr who plunged the ball over from the 14 yard line for the score. Crispy aided in the touchdown with a 50-yard broken field run that put the Oaklands in scoring position. Crispy was the outstanding star of the game. Schasas and Latimer played a good defensive game for the Oaklands. H. Grey, Marks and Tom Farrow were the best for the losers.

The summary:
DeHarts L. E. Brown
Carro L. T. (C) T. Farrow
Mrozek L. G. Stribling

Coach Tuss McLaughry, former Westminster griddier and coach sent his Brown outfit against Holy Cross and Brown won 10 to 7. It was the first defeat for Holy Cross. The McLaughry coached aggregation so far remains undefeated. DeCarbo and Benny Ciccone played left guard and center for Duquesne who beat Washington and Jefferson who lost 19 to 0. King of Ellwood City started at fullback for the Presidents. Deale of Sharpsville also got into the game at fullback.

Pitt-Colgate Rule In East

Penn, Holy Cross, St. Mary's And Virginia Poly Among Beaten

ARMY SMOTHERS HAVARD ELEVEN

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Fate, the unseen harvester, began some of his November pruning and trimming in the championship orchard over the week-end, with the result that football's family tree was minus some of its choicest blossoms today. The latter including Pennsylvania, Holy Cross, St. Mary's of California, and Virginia Poly. So much for those that were trimmed. As for the pruning, it was wholly Harvard's. Prune is the only word that seems to do justice to a team that not only did lose to the Army by 46 to 0, for the dubious distinction of earning the worst defeat a Harvard eleven has known since the early eighties. This was one of the louder denunciations which Saturday sounded off. Another was St. Mary's first defeat, a 14-0 disaster arranged by Fordham, which previously had blown two in a row to fairly common-place opposition. A third was Pennsylvania's maiden defeat, 12-13, arranged by Pittsburg, Pa. Further, wouldn't the latter's status, both seasonally and nationally. Other psychological salvos were fired by Brown, which went 80 yards in the last three minutes to beat Holy Cross, 10 to 7; by Alabama, which won from Virginia Poly, 9 to 6, and by Purdue, which ran up 37 points on Chicago.

Pitt Ranked Ahead
Id say, offhand, that the day definitely established Pitt, Southern California, Colgate, Army, Purdue, Michigan, Tennessee, Texas Christian, Brown, Auburn, U. C. L. C., and Columbia among others, as being entitled to national recognition. Some of those named, notably the Army and Texas Christian, have been beaten. Others have been tied, notably Purdue. But even tied teams like to try to beat the Army again, and as for Purdue, any team that scores 70-odd points against major opposition on successive Saturdays is just nobody's fool.

Pitt, of course, is getting all the play east of the Alleghenies, because of its run on decisions over Army, Notre Dame and Pennsylvania, but Colgate, winning from Mississippi College, 32 to 0, is going places on its way and now is distinguished by one virtue that no rival can hope to equal. With California's touchdown against U. S. C., Colgate is the only national contender with a scoreless defense. Anyhow, the results of Saturday left the sectional rankings somewhat as follows:
East—1 Pittsburgh, Colgate. Brown, Army, 2 Columbia, Pennsylvania, Holy Cross, 3 Villanova, Temple, Cornell, Princeton, Fordham (I don't care what it was two weeks ago; it was a football team on Saturday.)
Mid-West—1 Michigan, Purdue; 2 Notre Dame, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Ohio State; 3 Northwestern, Illinois, Nebraska, Indiana, Detroit, Chicago, South—1 Tennessee, Auburn, Vanderbilt; 2 Alabama, Louisiana State, Virginia Poly, Tulane, Duke; 3 Kentucky, North Carolina State, South Carolina, Georgia Tech.
Far West—1 Southern California, U. C. L. A., 2 Washington State, Oregon, Washington; 3 California, Stanford, St. Mary's, Santa Clara, Southwest—1 Texas Christian, Centenary; 2 Texas, Rice; 3 Arkansas, Texas A. and M., Southern Methodist, Baylor.

Blond Halfback Has Scored 12 Touchdowns For New Castle

LANE AND KOMINIC SECOND AND THIRD

Johnny Uram, the blond right-half of the New Castle High school "Red Hurricane," is the leading scorer on the team, as shown by figures compiled today. Uram, the speedster, has crossed the final white barred line 12 times. Friday Lane and Walter Komic have each scored eight touchdowns. Lane is one point ahead of Komic having converted an extra-point in one of the games.

Kolodjeski, the big fullback who broke his leg in the Charleroi game had three touchdowns when his misfortune happened. Tomaleilo the clever right-end has three touchdowns to his credit all on forward passes. Charles "Whitey" Nickum has scored two touchdowns. Nickum has not been in every game this year. Thomas, Ridley and Duff are the boys who have scored the other touchdowns. Kneram is in the point scoring with an extra-point, and so is Captain Mike DeCarbo who has converted seven touchdowns into extra-points.

Nickum is the real leader in extra-point kicking with 20 points after touchdowns and he hasn't missed very many. The New Castle "Red Hurricane" has scored a total of 265 points this year against 13 for their opponents.

Turtle Creek And South High Win Games Saturday

New Castle's Two Remaining Opponents Show Decided Strength

There are only two games left on the New Castle High 1932 program. Turtle Creek High will be the Thanksgiving Day game here, and Youngstown South this coming Saturday. The date of Nov. 19 is open on the New Castle card.

Last Saturday Turtle Creek showed power by handing Ligonier High a drubbing 26 to 6. South High of Youngstown remained in the unbeaten class by topping Salem High 36 to 0 at Youngstown.

Other Class AA scores last Saturday were Greensburg and Wilkesburg tied at 7-7, thus eliminating the Greensburg team from title honors and Jeannette 6 and Norwin 0. Jeannette and New Castle are the only unbeaten and untied teams left in the Class AA race.

Bush Is Leading College Scorer

(International News Service) NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Louis Bush, Massachusetts State halfback, is still on top in the battle for individual football scoring honors in the East.

Bush passed the century mark when he registered a pair of touchdowns against R. I. P. Saturday. He now has 108 points, with his nearest rival Siedlecki of Clarkston, boasting 64 points. Cliff Montgomery, ace of the unbeaten Columbia eleven, is close on the heels of the Clarkston halfback, with 2 markers away.

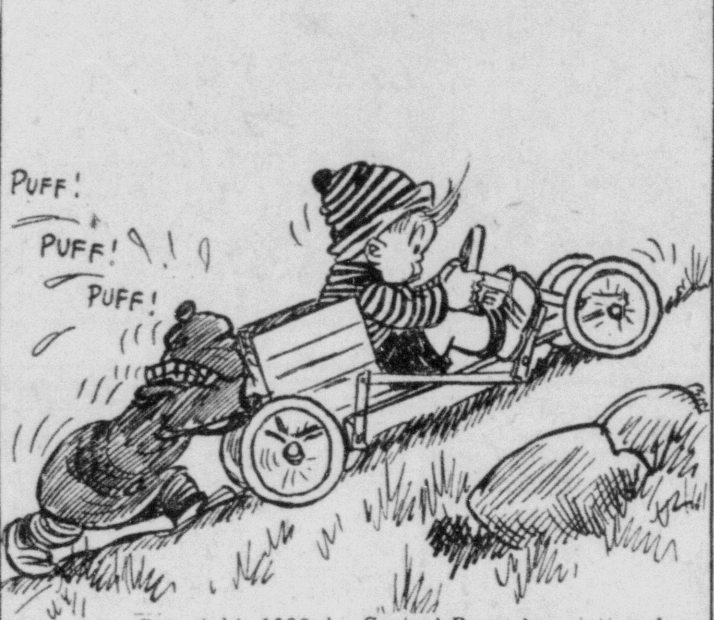

Colgate High Scorers
NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Red Raiders of Colgate today increased their lead in the fight for team football scoring honors in the East.

The Colgate boys hung up their seventh straight triumph Saturday, and have yet to yield a single point. They have rolled up 227 points over the opposition.

Columbia, another of the four unbeaten teams in the East, is second with 193 points scored, as to 25 for their rivals.

Third place is held by Army, with 182 points, with the Pittsburgh Panthers fourth with 173.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The bulls were in complete control of the stock market today and sent prices whirling up from 1 to more than 4 points in heavy trading.

Bonds and commodities went up with stocks. The rails were among the best performers with Union Pacific setting the pace, spurring more than 4 points. Saturday's decline in car loadings was ignored.

Leading stocks were outstandingly strong. American Telephone spurred nearly 4 points as the shorts were sent scrambling to cover. Allied jumped 4 points against the bears. Consolidated Gas was up about 3 points.

A rise in steel operations was a contributing factor to the rise in U. S. Steel common and preferred, which spurred about 3 points each.

Trading was the heaviest seen in weeks with large blocks of stock coming out on the tape right from the opening gong.

New Brighton Hi
Defeats Ellwood

DOOM FOR LOCALSBenedict Men Annoy New

Clever Running Game

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 7.—Employing a carefully devised and rehearsed aerial attack in the first half of their game, New Brighton High gave the blue and white of Ellwood City a surprise 19-0 setback at Lincoln field on last Saturday afternoon. All the scoring was done in the first two periods.

The defeat stung local fans who were expecting a nip and tuck affair, although placing New Brighton as the favorites in the contest. It was the Crimson's aerial game on a wet field that gave them the lopsided victory.

From the beginning of the game it was evident that the Roark men had something up their sleeve. They received the kickoff and after two running plays fared well. Capo punted. They would always punt on the second or third down, placing the piskin deep in Ellwood's territory. It had rained all morning and the field was sloppy and wet. It was evident that the New Brighton was playing for the breaks.

The locals sensed this and would punt back. But New Brighton had worked so far down field and with fine punting by Capo, most of the playing was in Ellwood's territory throughout the first half. Ellwood failed to negotiate a first down in this time, although they lost two fine scoring attempts upon being penalized 15 yards, both times.

The visitors opened their attack late in the initial period. Miss Paal was forced to punt from behind his own goal line which Walker received on his own 52 and advanced to Ellwood's 45. On the first play Capo passed to Walker for 45 yards who crossed the goal un molested for the first score. Webster's placement kick was wide. Up to this time the locals had completely stopped the visitor's running attack. After the score the pep and spirit seemed to be taken out of the blue and white team. They attempted to pass after receiving the kickoff, but each of Paal's flings were poor and failed to reach the intended designation.

Twice the locals flashed power in the initial period when Paal and Howells took off big gains through the Crimson line on fast and clever plays. Each of these were marred by big penalties.

Before the first stanza was ended it seemed that the Roark men were on their way for another touchdown. Their march was stopped on the 14 yard line when the whistle blew. But this was only a temporary respite for when the second quarter began they continued to advance the ball until it finally got to the one yard line. Here the Benedict men again made one of those glorious goal line stands for which they have become well known. Four times they repulsed the New Brighton backfield men to finally take the ball or downs and Paal punted out of danger.

Ellwood's glory was short lived. New Brighton took to the air again and on the third down after receiving Paal's punt, Capo threw one of those long passes to T. Mujwit, New Brighton's left end for 30 yards and a touchdown. This was rather hard for the locals to take. Fagan, McCloskey's understudy at quarterback had the receiver covered when the pass was thrown. As he leaped in the air to intercept it he slipped and fell in the mud. Thus Mujwit had no trouble catching the pass. Another touchdown for the visitors was not long in following. Capo had intercepted the last of Paal's three passes and was downed in his tracks on Ellwood's 46. On the first play, a spinner, Webster broke loose and sprinted the distance for a touchdown. This time Webster's placement kick was good to make the score 19-0 for New Brighton. The half soon ended.

It was a different Ellwood team who took the field in the second half. Everything seemed to click for them. Coaches Benedict and Ferrare had evidently spoken to their proteges. Luxenberg had received the kickoff on his own 5 and advanced it to the 30. On the first play Paal exhibited some clever broken field running. He received the ball on a reverse play, and dashed 30 yards before he was brought down near the sideline. With Paal and Luxenberg toting the ball the locals were again within scoring distance when a 15-yard penalty spoiled things. The Benedict men held the limelight throughout the second half. The tide had turned and New Brighton was on the defense. The locals scored 6 first downs to the visitors two in the final period, outplayed them in every department. Despite this fine showing they seemed to be thwarted in every scoring attempt.

The "It" in Dignity

But you'd never guess if we didn't tell you that this is Clara Bow, the flaming-haired "It" girl of the movie fan is a totally unfamiliar. Gone is the madcap and in her place is a stately, dignified lady who fairly exudes conservatism. Clara, who in private life is Mrs. Rex Bell, recently returned to the screen after a long absence.

Among Her Souvenirs

Mrs. William Sydney Porter Among her books and multitudes of memories in the beautiful old southern homestead, "Warsaw," near Asheville, N. C., Mrs. William Sydney Porter, widow of "O. Henry," the short story writer, reads, writes and entertains her friends. Her famous husband spent his last winter on earth 22 years ago in the old white house, although, his widow recalls, "he detested the solitude and loneliness." The noise and bustle of the city became so much a part of him that he couldn't do his best work in the country, his widow explains.

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 7.—Employing a carefully devised and rehearsed aerial attack in the first half of their game, New Brighton High gave the blue and white of Ellwood City a surprise 19-0 setback at Lincoln field on last Saturday afternoon. All the scoring was done in the first two periods.

The defeat stung local fans who were expecting a nip and tuck affair, although placing New Brighton as the favorites in the contest. It was the Crimson's aerial game on a wet field that gave them the lopsided victory.

From the beginning of the game it was evident that the Roark men had something up their sleeve. They received the kickoff and after two running plays fared well. Capo punted. They would always punt on the second or third down, placing the piskin deep in Ellwood's territory. It had rained all morning and the field was sloppy and wet. It was evident that the New Brighton was playing for the breaks.

The locals sensed this and would punt back. But New Brighton had worked so far down field and with fine punting by Capo, most of the playing was in Ellwood's territory throughout the first half. Ellwood failed to negotiate a first down in this time, although they lost two fine scoring attempts upon being penalized 15 yards, both times.

The visitors opened their attack late in the initial period. Miss Paal was forced to punt from behind his own goal line which Walker received on his own 52 and advanced to Ellwood's 45. On the first play Capo passed to Walker for 45 yards who crossed the goal un molested for the first score. Webster's placement kick was wide. Up to this time the locals had completely stopped the visitor's running attack. After the score the pep and spirit seemed to be taken out of the blue and white team. They attempted to pass after receiving the kickoff, but each of Paal's flings were poor and failed to reach the intended designation.

Twice the locals flashed power in the initial period when Paal and Howells took off big gains through the Crimson line on fast and clever plays. Each of these were marred by big penalties.

Before the first stanza was ended it seemed that the Roark men were on their way for another touchdown. Their march was stopped on the 14 yard line when the whistle blew. But this was only a temporary respite for when the second quarter began they continued to advance the ball until it finally got to the one yard line. Here the Benedict men again made one of those glorious goal line stands for which they have become well known. Four times they repulsed the New Brighton backfield men to finally take the ball or downs and Paal punted out of danger.

Ellwood's glory was short lived. New Brighton took to the air again and on the third down after receiving Paal's punt, Capo threw one of those long passes to T. Mujwit, New Brighton's left end for 30 yards and a touchdown. This was rather hard for the locals to take. Fagan, McCloskey's understudy at quarterback had the receiver covered when the pass was thrown. As he leaped in the air to intercept it he slipped and fell in the mud. Thus Mujwit had no trouble catching the pass. Another touchdown for the visitors was not long in following. Capo had intercepted the last of Paal's three passes and was downed in his tracks on Ellwood's 46. On the first play, a spinner, Webster broke loose and sprinted the distance for a touchdown. This time Webster's placement kick was good to make the score 19-0 for New Brighton. The half soon ended.

It was a different Ellwood team who took the field in the second half. Everything seemed to click for them. Coaches Benedict and Ferrare had evidently spoken to their proteges. Luxenberg had received the kickoff on his own 5 and advanced it to the 30. On the first play Paal exhibited some clever broken field running. He received the ball on a reverse play, and dashed 30 yards before he was brought down near the sideline. With Paal and Luxenberg toting the ball the locals were again within scoring distance when a 15-yard penalty spoiled things. The Benedict men held the limelight throughout the second half. The tide had turned and New Brighton was on the defense. The locals scored 6 first downs to the visitors two in the final period, outplayed them in every department. Despite this fine showing they seemed to be thwarted in every scoring attempt.

with his passing, running, and punting ability in the Ellwood backfield. Red Vogt and Louie Demas turned in notable performances in the line. New Brighton's speed merchants, Walker, Webster, and Capo lived up to every expectation and thrilled their supporters with electrifying runs. Capo's long passes were one of the highlights of the game. T. Mujwit, Capt. Gillen, and Goosby were outstanding in the line.

On next Saturday Ellwood will entertain the strong Rochester eleven at Lincoln Field. Considering the fact that they have defeated the strong New Brighton team 13-7

ROAMING With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle.

About this time of year the conversation over around the Legion Home turns to the war. For eleven and a half months a year there is probably less talk about the war by the men who fought it, than there is around a country grocery store. But let it get to the Armistice Day period and the talk goes back to the days of 1918.

Somehow it doesn't seem fourteen years since they called the war off. Yet it has been that long, just fourteen years yesterday since the fake Armistice was signed, the armistice that didn't come for five days after. Perhaps you remember the parade celebrating an Armistice that hadn't been signed.

For the men of New Castle who were with the 332nd Infantry, (the Lion of St. Marks) the Armistice was signed nearly a week ahead of the regular Armistice. Down along the Piave and the Tagliamento Rivers where the 332nd was brigaded with the Italian Army, the armistice with Austria was made days before the one the Allies in France had been drawn up and signed.

These are days when St. Nazaire, St. Mihiel, Pismes and Fismette, Nice, the Pyrenees, Ehrenbreitstein, Metz, Camp Pontzenen, the Argonne, and like names are heard around the rooms, and some of the battles are fought over. The trip over, the first night up at the front, the rest camps, the Battle of the Boulevards, all of them are brought out once a year and lived over again.

And in between Armistice Days, a stranger would never suspect that the gentlemen sitting around the room of the Legion Home were once killers, that many of them there were on the business end of a rifle that wiped out some of the lads across a bullet swept area, and that the strongest advocates of peace can be found among those same men.

One of the quietest of them, a lad who is seldom heard in argument or conversation, was up where the fighting was thick. A shell came over one night and dropped into a spot where the artillery horses were tethered. Some of the horses were killed, others wounded and others stampeded. He dashed out—at the risk of his own life, shot the wounded horses and gathered the strays together and put them in a safe place. And never got the D. S. C. that was recommended.

This collyum has a suggestion that might come in handy after the football games. Leave the opposing players and the visiting fans alone. Almost every week a crowd of local fans gathers around the bus which hauls the visiting team and always there is an argument.

All of the fighting should be done on the gridiron, and that by the football players. When the game is over, it's over and all the arguments and all the gibes in the world won't change a point of it. And it does make a rather bad impression to start an argument with the visitors after the game.

Commissioners Face Serious Problem

County commissioners are puzzled as to what to do with a dozen or more cases of persons who are suffering from loathsome disease which render it dangerous to take the victims to the county home.

They are in no condition to mingle with the other inmates of the home and should be confined in a pest house. The county does not have any suitable place at present and the cases, which promise to be quite expensive, are furnishing a troublesome problem. The commissioners report that there has been a decided increase in this character of cases.
